

LV 7390

Enhanced Layout Function

Overview

With the enhanced layout function, the popular free layout function has further evolved, it has become possible to display the specified channel large or to arrange all display items freely.

This is installed as a standard function of the LV 7390, and it is possible to set the item size for each channel and freely set the layout of multiple channel display.

Enhanced Layout display (sample)

Enhanced Layout setting display

Display item switching function

By clicking on the sub PIC screen with the mouse, the display position of the main item and the clicked sub item will change.

